

TILE

- All tilers to wear Personal Protective Equipment: Safety hat, glasses, vest, pants and boots.
- When working on elevations fall protection is required.
- When handling materials Kevlar gloves provide additional hand protection.
- Limited access zones are to be established to provide traffic control.
- Workers exposed to chemicals may require ventilation to help air circulation.
- Knee pads are a good way to prevent knee injuries associated with tile installation.
- Only use operator's instructions when using power tools.
- All electrical tool and equipment are to have GFCI requirements.
- Physical conditions are to be controlled by muscular warm up and stretches.
- Environmental conditions are to be controlled with shade and drinking water.